Reorganization EECS currently consists of 15 divisions distributed between 4 departments, but from January 1st there will be 14 departments. To make sure that student representation is carried out in all departments there will be a formal requirement for meetings with the department management and the student representative for that department. This warrants a large council of at least 14 people, so that each department is represented by a student from that department.

Social events The EECS council has organized two events in November and December. A boule event with “find the researcher”-game and a painting event with a talk about women in research by Professor Ioana-Oriana Bercea. Both events were well attended and highly appreciated by the students attending them.

The pictures included in the documents are from the events:

1. showing a group of people getting ready for playing boule
2. Showing a canvas with a half-painted picture in the foreground and people working on their paintings in the background.
